The Board of Directors’ proposed remuneration policy is attached as Annex 1, and the revised guidelines for incentive-based remuneration are attached as Annex 2. Both documents are available on the Company’s website www.chr-hansen.com.

The revised guidelines include the following main changes in comparison to the existing guidelines:

- Increased flexibility in the composition of short-term incentive-based remuneration allowing for the allocation between cash bonus and restricted share units (RSUs) to be determined by the Board of Directors.

- Introduction of a possibility for the Board of Directors to determine longer exercise periods (changed from three years to a minimum of three years and a maximum of six years) and vesting periods (changed from three years to a minimum of three years).

- Introduction of a ceiling for the distribution of long-term incentive-based remuneration corresponding to 100% of the Executive Officer’s annual base salary at the time of award.

These guidelines have been considered and approved at the Company’s General Meeting held on 29 November 2011, cf. s. 139 of the Companies Act.
